The Policy

Fiducia MGA offer a suite of Engineering products which are designed to suit businesses of all sizes.

The policy is designed to easily and clearly extend to meet the needs of your customers.

The policy is competitive in both price and cover offered. We aim to deliver clear and accurate documentation.

Our experienced Underwriters appreciate the value in risk management and pricing from us will reflect the quality of the risk presented.

What does it cover?

The policy covers physical loss, destruction or damage to computer and ancillary equipment at the insured's premises, to portable computers and computer media anywhere in the World and additional expenditure incurred following loss of or damage to computer equipment, failure of telecommunications, electricity, denial of access or corruption of data.

Claims and Risk Management

We recruit knowledgeable and specialist Underwriters and independent risk engineers who understand the risks and are available to discuss your needs. When claims occur, you can be confident we will work with you to provide solutions, using experienced staff and/or loss adjusters.
